Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-16 and 18-51 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a method and system for managing and tracking information items within a message-based system on a user system. The independent claim 1 identifies an uniquely distinct feature "the thrask comprising a collection that associates a plurality of information items, at least one information item in the plurality of information items having a first set of metadata, the collection capable of associating a document information item and a message information item; ... displaying, in the viewer, the thrask and at least one displayed metadatum selected from the first set of metadata or the second set of metadata.". And independent claim 26 identifies a unique feature of "the thrask comprising a collection that associates a plurality of information items, at least one information item in the plurality of information items having a first set of metadata, the collection capable of associating a document information item and a message information item; ... a display module configured to display the thrask and at least one displayed metadata selected from the first set of metadata or the second set of metadata".

2. The closest prior art, Chandra et al. (U.S. 2002/0138582) relates to data processing in the fields of electronic messaging and collaborative communications. The invention relates more specifically to a collaborative communications system providing transportable applications, multiple-page electronic messages and electronic messages that are linked and aggregated, whether taken alone or in combination fails to anticipate or render the above underline.

Art Unit: 2143

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reason for Allowance."

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeffrey C. Pwu whose telephone number is 571-272-6798. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, David Wiley can be reached on 571-272-3923. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
